Insight on Chinese Polyether Polyols Supply in SE & Sth Asia

2018-04-13

PUdaily, Shanghai - As the most important export destinations for polyether polyols producers in China, Southeast Asia and South Asia account for over 30% of China's polyether polyols exports. In Southeast Asia, Vietnam, Thailand and Indonesia are the main target markets. While in south Asia, India and Pakistan are the major target markets. Though some distributors also export a sizable volume of polyether polyols, direct exports by manufacturers in China play a dominant role. By analyzing the dimensions of exporters, export destinations and product variety, PUdaily draw the following conclusions about China's exports to markets in southeast Asia and South Asia...
